

The 2nd Annual Rosette 5K fundraiser will be held on May 2, 2015. This event will begin and conclude at Flower Mound High School. The Rosette family seeks to create a widespread, community-building event for individuals and families, specifically highlighting health, wellness and fitness. Sponsorship benefits are detailed below. In addition to the publicity and marketplace exposure you/and or your business will be provided, your participation will demonstrate a strong presence in our community and support of a healthy-living philosophy and goal.

The race will be widely publicized and promoted. All sponsors will have an opportunity to provide samples, promotional items/giveaways, information and/ or coupons for the runner's bags provided all participants, as well as set up a table or display area at the event.
